

FRESH 2019

Frequently asked questions

These are frequently asked questions for FRESH. We are very happy to help answer your questions, however, please refer to these notes before getting in touch.

Who is eligible?

All applicants must be 2018 or 2019 graduates of UK higher education universities and colleges who have studied BA, MA, Diploma or HND (Higher National Diploma) studies. Applications will be only considered from individuals whose primary medium is clay.

Can post-graduate students apply?

Yes, if they comply with the above criteria.

Can I apply if I have exhibited in FRESH before?

Yes if you are a graduating again from a programme that completed in 2018 or 2019

We work as a partnership /company. Can we make a collective application?

Yes.

Are there age restrictions?

No.

How many images / works can I submit?

A maximum of six – these may include illustrations of process and details of work.

What media are eligible for entry?

All media are eligible providing the 'primary medium is clay'.

Can these be composite works, utilising materials other than clay?

Yes, providing the primary medium is clay.

Do these all need to be new work?

Any work submitted must have been made in the period September 2017-August 2019.

Is there a size restriction?

No, not at this stage – but please provide dimensions of all work submitted proposed for exhibition.

I graduated from a UK institution, but live and work abroad. Can I apply?

Yes

I am a UK resident, but design for a non-UK company. Can I apply?

Yes.

I work as an in-house designer for a ceramics company. Can I apply as an individual?

Yes, with the permission of your employer and providing that you are the credited designer of the work submitted.

I can't download an application form. What do I do?

Please contact: Rhiannon Ewing-James, email rhiannon@britishceramicsbiennial.com, and give your postal address.

How do I send my application?

Electronically only. Please send all documents and images to:
rhiannon@britishceramicsbiennial.com using www.wetransfer.com .