

BCB Studio

Clay Comrades

Being a Clay Comrade?

If you have some experience of making with clay, you may want to consider joining the BCB Studio as a member.

Comrades bring their own clay experience and expertise, they have access to space, equipment and firing services to make their own work. There is an atmosphere of mutual support and enthusiasm; it is a place where skills and talent develop, as well as friendships.

Where?

BCB Studio
Spode Works
Elenora Street
ST4 1QQ

When

The studio will be open:

Monday: 1:30 - 8:30

Thursday: 1:00 - 8:30

You can choose which sessions you want to attend, twice or once a week, just tick the register when you are in.

Fees:

6 Sessions £60

18 Sessions £165

Drop-in £13

Bank details:

The Clay Foundation

Sort Code: 089299

Account Number: 65780750

What to expect:

A friendly supportive environment where you can work independently on your clay practice. Get to know other Clay Comrades. Firing, some tools and equipment are provided. It may be cold, even in the height of summer, wear warm clothes.

For further details and availability, please contact Sarah Fraser

sarah@britishceramicsbiennial.com or

07395128886
01782 294634

