

Cast of Thousands – Making Your Figure

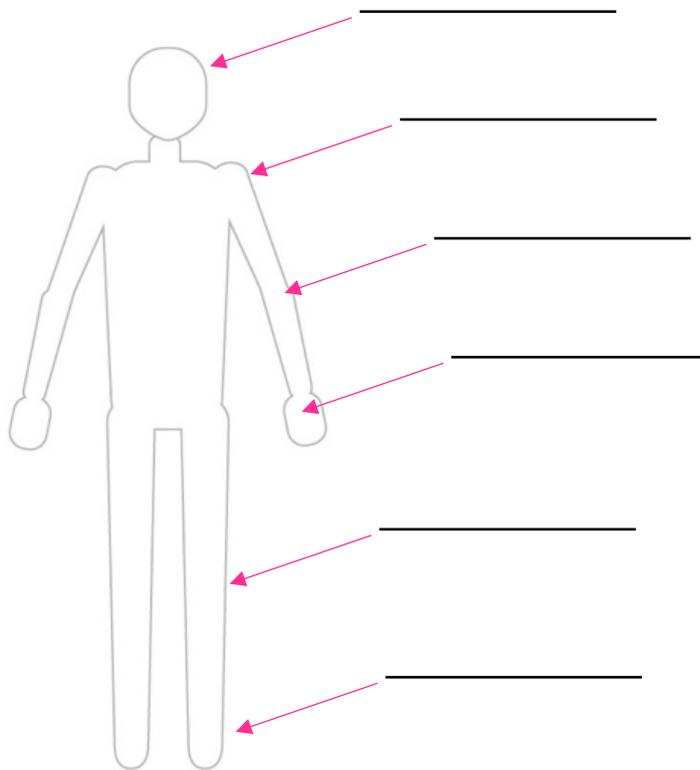

Method:

- You can use this picture to help get the size correct of your figure.
- Roll sausages of clay to make figure. Start with a long sausage for the legs.
- Use a short fat sausage for the body
- Roll another long sausage for the arms
- Finally, a ball for the head
- You can use a bit of water to help stick your figure together
- Press clay into thin pancakes slabs before you cut shapes out for clothes.
- You can shape your figure in any way you want. They could be sitting, or lying down. Be as creative as you can.

Cast of Thousands – The Human Body

Can you name the body parts of your figure?

If you can name these parts easily, what about the names of bones of these body parts?

Or there are six types of joint in the human body.

Can you name them all?

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

Can you find them on your figure?

Your Family

Can you use your figure to talk about your family?

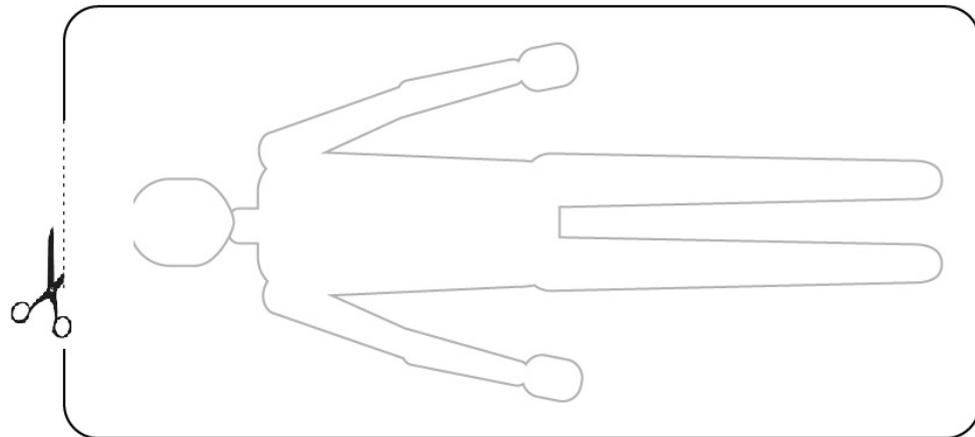

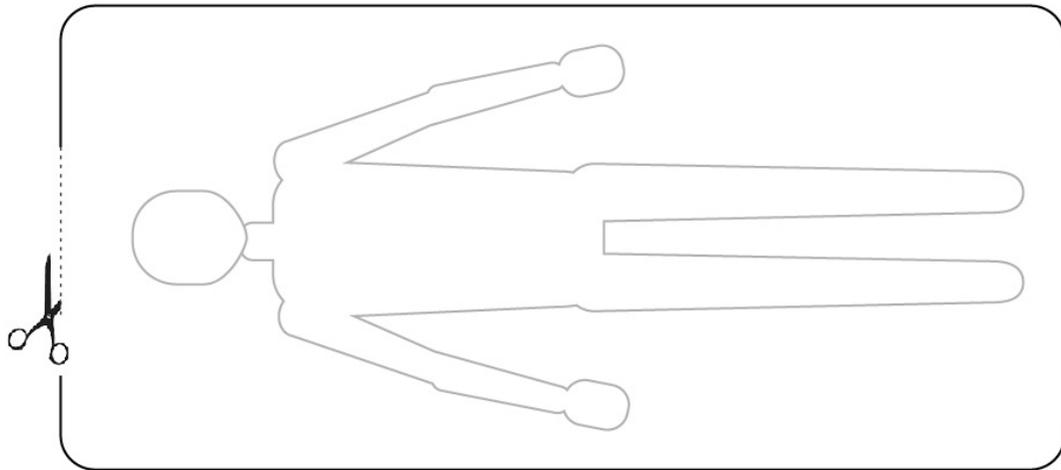

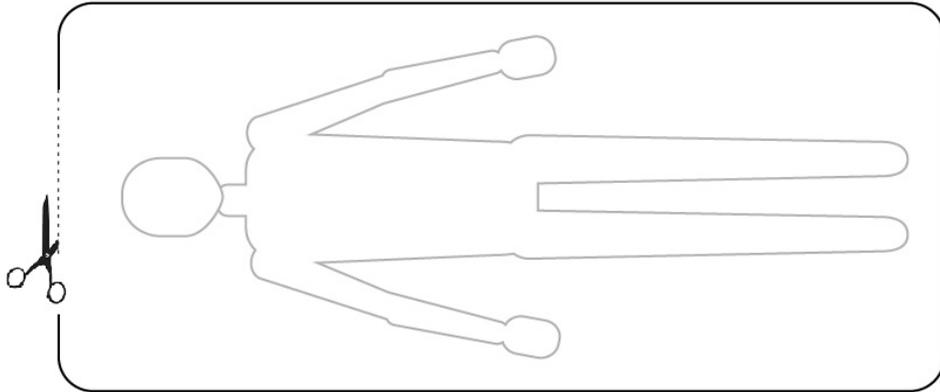

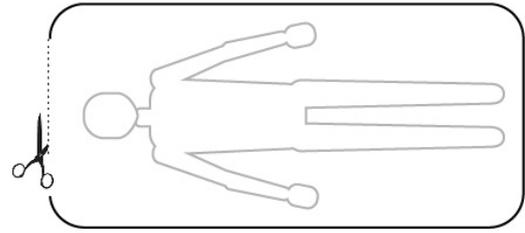

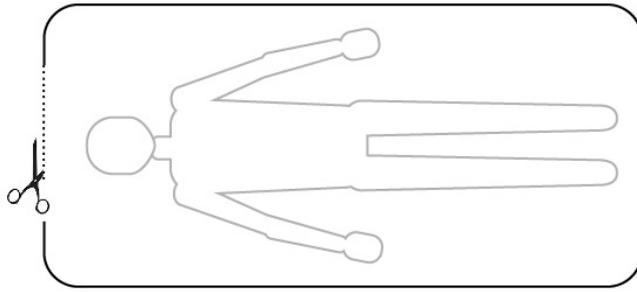

Use the questions below to start thinking about who you are, where you are from, and what your life looks like.

Who am I?	Where do I go to school?
Who are we?	What's my history?
Where do I live?	What's my family history?
Who are my friends?	What's the history of where I live.
Who is my family?	How do I affect where I live?

How has your life changed in the last month?

Use the space below to record your answers:

Use these templates to cut out and draw the people you live with

Cast of Thousands: Your Lockdown-Superhero

We Need You to Design Your Lockdown-Superhero!

Use the space below to design your own superhero to help us all in the lockdown.

Create your Superhero design in the space below.

What is their Superhero
name?

What could be their special powers?

What colours might they wear?

What would they be fighting for to help
people in lockdown?

Your Cast of Thousands Story

Use your superhero Cast of Thousands figures to create a story

How does your story start?

Who else is in the story?

Where does the story
take place?

What happens in the middle?

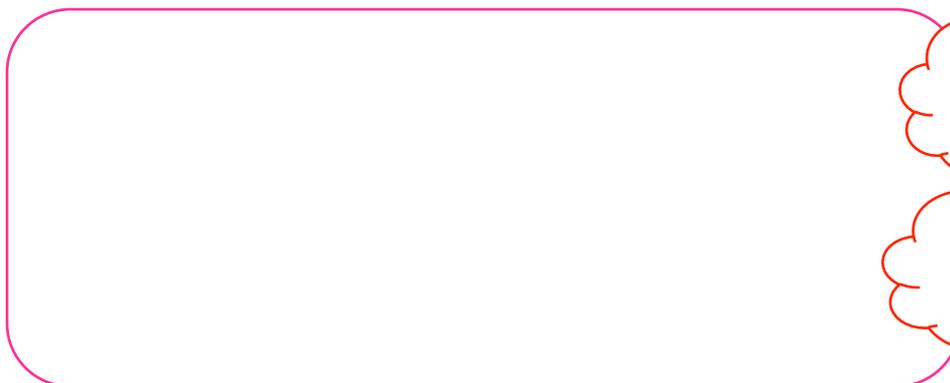

What happens
to your characters?

What will they do?

Do they meet anyone new?

How does your story end?

How does
the story
end?

What happens
to your characters?